At meeting December 8 with UK, French and German Ambassadors concerning preparations for Western Summit, Secretary made following statement (unnecessary words omitted):

QTE 1. There have been press reports alleging that US will eventually withdraw its forces from Europe.

2. These reports represent totally false conception of how US assesses its long-range security interests and of our commitment to NATO.

3. As long as Soviet threat exists and our collective defense effort continues, American troops will remain an effective part of the military shield in Europe. There will be no rpt no Withdrawal.

4. We also believe certain NATO nations have a special obligation to examine their respective contributions.

5. Although we believe that their proportional contributions should be increased, we have never hinted that this would involve US withdrawal. END QTE

~~Rebute to the statement that the US has no intention of withdrawing its forces from Europe.~~
